THANK YOU so much for volunteering!

We will begin our reading practice program on Monday, October 10. Your job as a reading volunteer will be to help as many students as you can get through their letter flash cards. We will be doing our morning meeting during the morning and writing workshop in the afternoon. This will be a perfect time to practice our letters and sounds. You can begin working with students at your time. If you are unable to finish your kids during your time slot that is alright. Just get through as many as you can.

Please check over the information above to make sure that the day I've chosen for you still works with your schedule. Also let me know if I have an incorrect e-mail address listed for you. If there is ever a week when your scheduled day doesn't work for you, just send me an email to let me know about the conflict. Or if you are no longer able to participate let me know. There is no pressure. I really appreciate any help you can offer and I understand that schedules change from week to week.

Thank you very much,
Toby Jurewicz
